

Can patterns help us
find an easy way to answer the question:

How many seats can fit around a row of triangle tables?